Old Prison Ordered Closed, The fortress of San Juan de Ulur orious for centuries as perhaps th ulest prison on the American cont cut, has been ordered by Rear Admira; Fleicher to be completely vacated immediately.

When the American sailors and maines occupied Vera Cruz there were a this prison, which is constructed in form of a little island to the b tolk bor, some 400 prisoners, most of them numbered of these men already have etg and marines killed at Vera Cruz or ern released or transferred to other risons, but there remain 116 and now these men are to be sent elsewhere.

Terrible Conditions Prevailed, The inspection of the prison by the american authorities verified the tales that had been written and told for senerations of the terrible conditions are alling there. Many dangeons were clos the water line when the tide wa itining in at which time the inmates many of whom were half blind on account of their form incarceration t emi-darkness, were drenche! Other lungeons were so constructed that it was impossible for the prisoners to lie lown. Ancient devices of forture were December and there was evidence timt the e recently had been in use.

Among those in confinement were men once of prominence, but whose names now have been almost forgoten; men who have been there so lon that their minds are blank, and men so enfeebled to the treatment they had received as to moure their transfor to hospitals instead of to prisons The appearance of the prisoners was

CLEVELAND TO CHANGE TIME.

City Adopts Eastern Standard-Muci-Confusion Expected.

Cleveland, O., April 30.-Cleveland's decision to change from central standard to eastern standard time will be put into effect tomorrow, and it is expected that for a while at least, it will e a case of "confusion worse confounded" for the people. The change is the result of a campaign that has been waged for a long time by the business interests of the city. Under the new arrangement the factories and shops will begin work an hour earlier in the morning and close an hour earler in the afternoon, thus giving the imployes the benefit of an additional our of daylight after work. Mun infusion is expected to follow the hange, however, since the postoffice department, the most of the railroad; the express companies and numerous other concerns have decided not to conform to the new time change because it would necessitate a complete rearrangement of their schedules.

acific agents it will lift a cloud from 25,000 Visitors Expected at Jacksonville Next Week

Jacksonville, Fla., April 20.-All arrangements have been completed for the twenty-fourth annual national encampment of the United States Confederate Veterans, which will be belo in this city next week.

For nearly a year, a committee of fifty of the foremost citizens of Jackand is being installed, following the ferred and that a meeting will be held sonville has been at work on the preparations for the reception and entertainment of the 25,000 or more visitors who are expected to be here from every part of the south. The detailed program prepared by the committee is of the most perfect and elaborate character and if the coming reunion is not one of the most successful ever held by the veterans who were the gray is will not be the fault of the people of

Already public buildings and private residences are taking on holiday attire in honor of the coming of the grizzled perces. The electrical decorations will be the most elaborate ever seen in the south. Upon arriving at the union depot the first thing to attract the attention of the visitors will be an enormou electric sign tlashing out the words. "Jacksonville Bids You Welcome." At all the principal street inter-section in the downtown district, beautifu canoples of electric lights are being enstructed. The leading thorough fares are lined with Venetian masts from which Old Glory and the Stars and Bars iwll float side by side, Count less yards of bunting and thousands of flags and hanners will be used in he decorations of the building fronts along the line of the reunion parad

Only One Surviving General. Gen. Bennett H. Young of Louisville mmander-in-chief of the United Conederate Veterans, will preside at th business sessions of that body. Gover nor Park Trammell and other promment speakers will be on the program. Among the notable guests who will be assigned places of honor or 1% the platform will be Gen E. M.
